Abstract

This is a working template for the research paper to be presented at the IOE Graduate Conference. The template has been typeset in L<sup>A</sup>T<sub>E</sub>X. You have to replace certain sections of this template by your content and produce a pdf file as final output. Format for different types of elements that could occur in the paper are already defined in this template. The authors are to strictly follow the style/formatting as defined in this template for consistencies in a single paper and across different papers. The contents of the paper appears in a two column format, with a few exceptions. Your paper should be limited to 8 pages and abstract should not exceed 300 words. Each of the keywords need to be separated by commas as given in the example below.
